Bethel Presbyterian Church Newsletter

April 2019

Did you know that the Easter season lasts all the way until Pentecost? As we reflect on the Easter message it is a time for us to look at Jesus as a living vital part of our lives. The risen Christ longs to be in relationship to you just as deeply as he did the disciples. The Christ who knows us knows our deepest personal anguish, our greatest personal joys, and our deepest personal thoughts.

The Christ who knows us understands our humanity from the moment of birth to the moment of death. The Christ who knows us offers us the life-giving power of God. The Christ who knows us offers us a future is full of promise and possibility. Easter is a call not only to celebrate the good news, but to now be the good news.

We are called to receive mercy, and give it in return. We are called to accept forgiveness, and to forgive. We are called to be loved, and to love one another unconditionally. We are called to be reconciled to God and to reconcile with others. Through Christ we are accepted by God and we are called to accept others.

The Christ who knows us, knows us intimately. God knows us so intimately that we indeed may try to run and hide from God; however, just like Peter in the final chapter of John's Gospel, God will find us, forgive us and call us to serve. Through Jesus Christ God refuses to give up or call it quits in regards to his children even when we feel we can't go on. It is the Easter season and we are called to live every moment with all of the joy, commitment, courage, hope, faith, love, praise and enthusiasm we can summon and display. Through that relationship we draw the strength we need to share God's love with others.

Remember the promise: The promise of Easter! Jesus says, "I am the resurrection and the life. Believe in me, hang on to me, and you will never die. From birth to death I will never leave you." In all of life's anguish, that sometimes causes us to believe that there are parts of us that have died, Christ's promise is sure, "You too will one day rise to live, laugh and love again." Remember that promise and dry your tears. He is alive! He is Risen! He is Risen indeed!

Food for Thought .....
Pastor Todd

Bethel Presbyterian Church — 1841-1860

The year 1855 seems to have been a very busy year for Bethel, that date being the only one for which any real history can be found. In that year, Bethel was reincorporated under the name, "The Trustees of Bethel Church and Congregation of Harford County". Records do not tell us why this was deemed necessary. We can assume that either the original document was lost or perhaps that the trustees were not aware of its existence. We have a copy of this document, beautifully handwritten in the old style of the time. That document is still valid and has had only one amendment added, that of changing the date of the annual meeting.

That year, also, the Sunday School was begun, although no details about it can be found, including the number of children involved. This was also the year that Bethel acquired its first manse. Four acres were bought from Ruth Cathcart for $250.00 and a manse built on the property. Prior to this, pastors had to provide their own housing. It is also reported that in 1855 Bethel became self-supporting, refusing any further help from Presbytery.

Nation's History — 1841-1860

- 1841 William Henry Harrison was elected President but died 32 days after taking office from pneumonia. John Tyler became President after Harrison's death.

Underground Railroad - Harriet Tubman helps 300 fleeing slaves to the North
- 1850 Millard Fillmore became President after Taylor's death
- 1851 James King invents first washing machine
- 1852 Harriet Beecher publishes Uncle Tom's Cabin
